

Dr. Guy Sagi, JSD

EDUCATION

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW, New York, New York
J.S.D graduate in Antitrust and Competition Law, May 2007
LL.M. graduate, Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar, May 2002

THE HEBREW UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL, Jerusalem, Israel
LL.B graduate, Magna Cum Laude, March 1997
Editor "Mishpatim", The Hebrew University of Jerusalem Law Review, 1996-1997, 1999-2000.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Netanya Academic College, Faculty Member, Israel, 2006 - Present
Antitrust, Advanced Antitrust, Civil Procedure and Administrative Law
The Hebrew University Law School, Adjunct Lecturer, Israel, 2006 - 2015
Antitrust and Advanced Antitrust.
Hamichlala Leminhall, Adjunct Lecturer, Israel, 2008
Advanced Antitrust.
The Academic Center of Law & Business, Adjunct Lecturer, Israel, 2008 – 2021
Antitrust, Civil Procedure.

PUBLICATIONS

- “Public Participation in the Administrative Process”, with Eyal Benvenisti, On Law, Government and Society (festschrift for Justice Itzhak Zamir), 119 (Dotan & Bendor eds. 2005), in Hebrew.
- The Oligopolistic Pricing Problem – A Suggested Price Freeze Remedy, Columbia Business Law Review 269 (2008).
- “Market Definition - The Proper Use of the SSNIP Test”, 41 Mishpatim, The Hebrew University Law Review 385 (with Shuky Erenberg) (2011).
- “The Antitrust ‘Infant defense’ – is this the Child We Prayed for?”, 42 Mishpatim, The Hebrew University Law Review 521 (2012).
- “A comprehensive Analysis to Tying Arrangements in Israel”, 43 Mishpatim, The Hebrew University Law Review 707 (2013).
- “A Comprehensive Economic and Legal Analysis of Tying Arrangements”, 38 Seattle University Law Review 1 (2014);
- “Conditional Pricing Practices: Rule of Reason, Quasi per se, or something in between”, with David Gilo and Assaf Eilat, Journal of Antitrust Enforcement, 2016, 1–36 (Oxford University Press).